The Mayco Book

The definitive guide to Mayco products is here. This handy reference contains 70 pages of useful information including product characteristics, general application directions, firing information and notes specific to each product family. Available now from your Mayco supplier.

Ceramics 101

This general overview of the ceramic process is an excellent source for school presentations and to have as reference at a studio. Ceramics 101 is non-brand specific, which means it will work for anyone, no matter what product brands are being used. Topics range from what type of clay to use for various projects to kiln operation and glazes. And it wouldn't be complete without a troubleshooting section. A high fire guide is also included.

NEW POTTERY COAT™ STUCCO

Pottery Coat, Pottery Coat Stucco and Pottery Cascades work well with Elements Chunkies. You can get a completely different look by using them with other non-toxic glazes such as Series 2000, Classic Crackles, Crystalites, Elements and Stroke & Coat.

Just imagine the Possibilities!

Important Information

Prices are effective as of February 1, 2004. All prices shown are suggested retail prices. Actual prices are at the discretion of the reseller. Prices are subject to change without notice.

All of our products meet the highest standards of quality and performance. Because of the variability in the chemical content of slip, the temperature uniformity in kiln, the organic materials used in glazes and other variables, we strongly recommend test firings of any glaze or techniques that are new to the user. Any product that becomes defective through manufacturing or packaging will be replaced at no cost. It is the responsibility of the end user to ensure that our product purchased is suitable for the project being executed. Mayco cannot be responsible for any incidental or consequential damages.

Do not spray apply glazes or stains without OSHA approved respiration equipment and spray booths.

Please carefully read label instructions and health caution labels.

Individual Technique Sheets and MSDS sheets may be received free by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Mayco, 4077 Weaver Court South, Hilliard, Ohio 43026. The Health & Safety Bulletin and MSDS sheets may also be viewed on our website at www.maycocolors.com.
